JONAS[7] HARTZELL (JOHN PHILIP[6], JOHANN GEORGE[5] HERTZEL, HANS GEORGE[4], HANS GEORG[3], CLEMENS[2] HIRTZEL, HANS HEINRICH[1])[45,46] was born May 18, 1803 in Cumberland Twp., Adams Co., Pennsylvania, and died August 30, 1880 in Darke Co., Ohio. He married ELIZABETH WELTY[47] February 12, 1829 in Adams Co., Pennsylvania, daughter of JOHN WELTY and CATHERINE WEAVER. She was born August 09, 1807 in Cumberland, Adams Co., Pennsylvania, and died May 11, 1896 in Darke Co., Ohio.

Notes for JONAS HARTZELL:

Came to Darke Co. in 1835 or 1836, depending on your source. May have come in 1835 to acquire property, with actual move the next year.

According to the information on Jonas' brother Philip (Darke County History and Genealogy), "His father was one of six brothers, who came to Darke Co. -- Henry, George, and Jeremiah came in 1833, Philip and Jonas in 1836, and Daniel probably in 1837 or 1838..."

According to his obituary (unidentified local paper, 1880), "He was the father of 13 children, six boys and seven girls, ten of whom, together with their mother, survive him."

He also had, at time of death, 37 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

Buried in Abbottsville Cemetery, Darke Co. Ohio. Monument is a large one, close to the north entrance. Additional separate small stones for him and his wife Elizabeth; their names are on opposite sides of the monument. Personally viewed and photographed in 1998.

Family tradition had most of the information contained in pp. 498 f. of Beers; the Beers information clarified the situation of two sets of twins, which had somewhat confused whoever originally wrote down the information that came down through the Rogers family.

In the 1850 Federal Census, the family is shown farming in Greenville Township., Darke Co., Ohio.

In the 1870 Federal Census, for Ohio, Darke Co., Greenville Township., pg. 52, are shown:

Jonas Sr.	age 67	born in Pennsylvania
Elizabeth	age 64	" " "
Catherine	age 36	" " "
Loretta D.	age 29	" " Ohio
James	age 23	" " "

Notes for PHILIP HARTZELL:
Original Rogers family notes showed him as unmarried. The information about his marriage was added later, according to my mother, and is in a different hand, and is confirmed by material in the Hartzell file at the Garst Museum in Greenville, Ohio.

The unidentified Four Generation chart in the Garst Museum Hartzell file also shows another child, "Agustus Neander", but no other information.

The 1850 Federal Census shows family as farming in Greenville Township, Darke Co., Ohio.

In 1870, still in Greenville Township:

There is also a Clara K____, age 6, going to school. The line is not very clear.

Notes for JULIA ANN HARMAN:

Original Rogers family notes had "Harmon", with "o", as the spelling, but some of the sources in the Hartzell file spell it Harman.

The 1893 obit on her in the Hartzell file shows her name as "Juliann Hannon", but exact place and date of birth and husband.

A Biographical History of Darke County Ohio, published in Chicago by the Lewis Publishing Company, 1900. p. 714-715

WILLIAM TOWNSEND

At the time of his death this gentleman was one of the prominent farmers of Van Buren township. He had won my an honorable and upright life and an untarnished name, and the record which he left behind him is one well worthy of emulation.

He was born in Montgomery county, Ohio, December 24, 1830, a son of James and Lydia (Arnold) Townsend, who spent their last days in Van Buren township, Darke county. They were married in September, 1818. The father was born in South Carolina September 12, 1796, and died when our subject was quite small, and the mother was born in the Newbury district of the same state in January, 1791, and died when William was fifteen years of age. He was reared near Jaysville, this county, and after the death of his mother remained on the old homestead until his marriage.

It was on the 8th of February, 1855 that Mr. Townsend wedded Miss Elizabeth Hartzell, who was born in Adams county, Pennsylvania, February 9, 1834, a daughter of Jonas Hartzell, who is mentioned more fully in the sketch of J.W. Hartzell on another page of this volume. Mrs. Townsend was but three years old when brought by her parents to Darke county, Ohio, and here she grew to womanhood, acquiring her education in the district schools. To our subject and his wife were born six children, namely: Maria Belle, born December 8, 1854, married John Markwith, and died August 31, 1885; Josephine, born September 20, 1856, is the wife of John Bittner, of Keokuk county, Iowa; Harrison, born November 21, 1859, is a resident of Dayton, Ohio; James H., born April 13,1865, lives in Van Buren township, this county; and Elman S. and Elmer Sherman, twins, born June 1, 1868, are residents of Greenville township, this county.

After his marriage Mr. Townsend continued to live on his father's old farm until 1865, when he purchased the mill of Adams township, which he operated for four years. He then bought one hundred and sixty acres of land near the Abbottsville cemetery and made his home there until his death, which occurred June 12, 1892. In his political affiliations he was a Republican. He was a consistent and faithful member of the United Brethren church and merited and received the confidence and high regard of all with whom he came in contact, either in business or social life.

More About HOMER LEE ROGERS:
Cause of Death: Suicide.

Notes for LURA MINTON:

According to the ms of Julia R. Platt's Memoirs, Lura was a very fine singer and sang professionally up until a few months before her death. She was a soprano.

Didn't have the exact date of death until June 1999. Source is copy of death record, from Miami County Health Department. Undertaker was Geeting Funeral Home. Per a discussion in October 2001 with the current local undertaker (located about half a block from the library) Geeting went out of business in 1942. According to him, they were supposed to supply the county with the burial location as well. However, all they indicated was "Cincinnati", which is not too helpful. There was a break of several years between Geeting and the next local undertaker who was in business by about 1948, so there is no continuity of records.

I knew from information from my mother, Julia Glee Rogers Platt, that Lura often visited Pleasant Hill during the summers after her parents divorced and her mother moved to Oregon. She appears, age 10, in the Ohio 1910 Census Miracode Index, in the household of Anna M. Ely, whose relationship to either the Coppocks or the Mintons is unknown.

Died At Home Of Aunt On Saturday

Mrs. Lura Minton Rogers, 43, wife of Homer L. Rogers of 829 Far Hills Avenue, Dayton passed away Saturday noon at 12:15 o'clock in the home of her aunt, Mrs. Lura Miles of Pleasant Hill, following an extended illness of two years.

The body was removed to the Getting funeral home and later returned to the Miles home.

Mrs. Rogers was brought to the home of her aunt, Mrs. Miles the latter part of November and at same time her mother Mrs. Bertha Edmundson of Salem, Oregon arrived to assist in her care. prior to her marriage she resided with her mother in Pleasant Hill and in 1918 was graduated from Pleasant Hill high school and her death marks the first loss in the circle of eighteen classmates. As long as her health permitted she was active in church and civic organizations and she was a beautiful singer, giving untiringly of her spendid talen. Her kindly disposition and ready smile endeared her to a large circle of relatives and friends who are deeply saddened by her death.

She leaves to mourn her departure her husband, one daughter, Glee, aged fifteen years, her mother, Mrs. Edmundson and several uncles and aunts, one of whom is Mrs. Lura Miles.

Funeral services were conducted this afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Congregational Christian Church in Pleasant Hill with Rev. L. C. Talmage officiating.

Marriage Notes for HOMER ROGERS and LURA MINTON:
There was conflicting family information about the marriage date. Julia Platt had what appeared to be a wedding photo, signed and dated by the photographer, which is dated 1920; however, information from Julia's cousin Esther Elizabeth Berry Nicholson seems to indicate an earlier date; she thinks they were married 10 years before Julia was born. The photo from 1920 is apparently just a formal portrait, not a wedding photo. If a wedding photo exists, I have not seen it.

76. JULIA GLEE[11] ROGERS (HOMER LEE[10], IORA PARLENA[9] GOWER, LOUISA JANE[8] HARTZELL, JONAS[7], JOHN PHILIP[6], JOHANN GEORGE[5]

HERTZEL, HANS GEORGE[4], HANS GEORG[3], CLEMENS[2] HIRTZEL, HANS HEINRICH[1])[417] was born November 23, 1926 in Cincinnati, Hamilton Co., Ohio, and died July 30, 1998 in Fairway, Johnson Co., Kansas. She married HENRY EDMUND PLATT[417] September 08, 1945 in Dayton, Montgomery Co., Ohio, son of GEORGE PLATT and REBECCA STANLEY. He was born July 07, 1922 in Wichita Falls, Wichita Co., Texas, and died November 28, 2002 in Shawnee, Johnson Co., Kansas.

Notes for JULIA GLEE ROGERS:
The last time I saw her alive, which was in 1998, she showed me a photo of two middle aged women, contemporaries of her parents. Their names were Julia and Glee; I did not ask their last names and I do not know if she knew herself. Until then I had no idea where her name came from. She always went by Glee until she moved to Shawnee, Kansas in the middle 1950's; there, she somehow ended up being called Julia by everyone except her husband.

More About JULIA GLEE ROGERS:
Burial: Cremation
Cause of Death: probably congestive heart failure

Notes for HENRY EDMUND PLATT:
Worked in the life insurance business most of his life. Finally retired at age 75. From 1979, Ed and Glee lived at 5933 Delmar, Fairway, Kansas.

He did many things besides work in the insurance business. He had a good bass voice until he lost it to cancer of the esophagus in 1990. He was a member of the choir of the Shawnee Methodist Church for a number of years, and was for some time a member of a SPBSQSA. He was fond of big band music and Gilbert and Sullivan operettas. In high school, he played trumpet in a band, sometimes making as much as $5 a gig, which was respectable pay for that time. He was a Cub Scout leader, Pack 3093, Shawnee Methodist Church. He coached baseball when I was in about second grade, which would be about 1957-8, for the Shawnee Methodist Men team in the Optimist League. Somewhere I still have my official contract with the team, just like the major leagues, but not paid!

He was a good swimmer, and up to within a few months of his death swam laps several times a week. When the family was living on Long Island (not knowing at the time the direct line had been in the general area in the 1700's) he was a Sea Scout. One time, he nearly drowned when a sailboat capsized in Long Island Sound.

He was devoted to his family, and as I found out only years later, several times turned down job opportunities which would have meant a significant salary increase because the job would require too much travel away from his family.

Most of all, he was a good husband to his wife of 52 years, and a good father to his children. That is the highest praise I know how to give.

December 01, 1952, Seattle, King Co., Washington; d. Aft. May 02, 2004.

Notes for JOHN ROGERS PLATT:
He started working on the family genealogy in 1996. On a visit to his parents in the autumn of that year, his mother, Julia Glee Rogers Platt, happened to mention that as far as she knew, nobody had ever even tried to find out where Jacob Rogers came from. There was an approximate birth date and a location which had come down, but no word at all on his parents. John had recently read an article in one of the weekly news magazines about online genealogy, which was starting to grow rapidly. John said, in one of the overly optimistic statements known, "Oh, I'll bet I can go on the Internet and find him in six days." John was roughly 6 years off on his estimate.

Education: BA, majoring in Psychology, University of Kansas, 1970. Graduated with distinction, departmental honors, and elected to Phi Beta Kappa, none of which ever did him much actual good in the real world aside from looking impressive on a resume. He worked for about 7 years as a printer in Lawrence, Kansas; then close to 3 years working for the City of St. Paul, Minnesota, as an assistant to the lead planner for Title VII programs (the interested reader would need to check under CETA, "Comprehensive Employment and Training Act" to see what that was all about). After that, he was unemployed for a year and a half in the midst of a recession. After that, he spent the years of roughly 1984 to 2002 engaged in health insurance claims administration, a boring but fairly reliable source of income. In February of 2004, he was hired by Disetronic, a producer and retailer of supplies for Type I diabetics. He moved to Fishers, Hamilton Co., Indiana, in May of 2004, arriving at 8:30 pm at 13972 Ashlake Lane just after dark.

His interests included music of many kinds, prehistory, anthropology, folklore, human communication, and (again) genealogy. If this note is in what you are reading, he was probably the one who compiled it (or at least part of it), and hopes you find it useful.
